

Home visits to help you live your healthiest life possible.

Intermountain Health House Calls for Select Health Medicare members!

How visits work.

- Intermountain Health House Calls will contact you to schedule an appointment.
- A nurse practitioner or physician assistant will visit with you in your home or virtually.
- Topics covered during your visit:
 - An overview of your medical history and prescription medications.
 - Completion of a health risk assessment.
 - Conversations about your overall well-being.
 - Information about local resources and support.
- The Intermountain Health House Calls team will share all medical notes from the visit with your elected doctor.

Get rewarded for your visit.

- After the visit and completion of a health risk assessment, you will receive $20 on your Select Health Medicare Flexible Benefits card.
- You can receive an additional $40 for also completing your annual wellness visit with your PCP.

NOTE: The Intermountain Health House Calls visit will not replace your PCP or your annual wellness visit.
